

Mary Gleason

CONSULTING & COACHING

EXPANDED AWARENESS * FORWARD MOMENTUM

BIO

Mary is an executive intuition coach combining her 30+ years in nonprofit management and consulting with her practice as an intuitive. She's a registered hypnotherapist and professionally trained psychic with a passion for others to tap into their intuition, especially when it comes to making decisions. Mary's goal is to help others create expanded awareness for forward momentum.

Mary encourages her clients to make whole brained decisions - or BYOB to Work (Bring Your Whole Brain to Work). Many executives make decisions heavily weighted toward data and spreadsheets (left brain) and ignore or overrule their intuition (right brain.)

SOCIAL MEDIA

-  linkedin.com/in/marygleason
-  facebook.com/MaryGleasonLife
-  youtube.com/channel/UCfBZSZky6S7COHGLCvEFbdw

INSPIRING AUDIENCES

You and your listeners will be inspired and engaged while discovering:

- The #1 secret of the most successful CEO's.
- How using your intuition can make you more productive, enhance performance and lead to greater profitability.
- How to apply your personal life's vision to your career success
- How to overcome decision fatigue

TOPICS

- Being Woo Woo in an Engineered World
- BYOB to Work (Bring Your Whole Brain to Work)
- Activate Your Inner Visionary
- Finding Your True Power

AUTHOR OF 'BEING WOO WOO IN AN ENGINEERED WORLD

Mary thought the world was resisting her. In reality, she was resisting her true intuitive self. In her book, 'Being Woo Woo in an Engineered World,' Mary shares her journey and offers exercises to help the reader tap into their intuition to create expanded awareness and forward momentum.

“Mary’s talents and abilities have surprised me every time. Her executive background has made it possible for her to help me acknowledge my intuition when it comes to making decisions with my own small business. I find her invaluable.”

–THERESA BAKER, Baker Insurance Group

“Mary Gleason's intuition coaching wasn't what I'd expected going in, but it gave me so much more than I thought possible coming out of it. There is no "one size fits all" with Mary - she worked with me as Me, first learning how I see myself and operate in my business and personal life, then coaching me on how to better understand my own intuition in all kinds of scenarios and situations... This has proven to be of utmost benefit in my business decisions and interactions, along with my personal relationships... I can't recommend her intuition coaching highly enough.”

– JD WYNEKEN, PH.D.
Strategic Planning & Re-engagement Director at Airway Science for Kids

SPEAKER TOPICS

Being Woo Woo in an Engineered World

Outlines Mary’s journey into the intuitive realm and the impact it had on her performance both personally and professionally. With the clarity that only hindsight can bring, Mary shares the importance of listening to your intuition, especially in the workplace. Today she is an out and proud woo woo executive. All audiences will find elements to which they can relate and participate in some simple exercises to help them get in touch with their intuition. Even the most intuitive audience member will find something new or remembered to improve performance for greater productivity and profitability with greater clarity and confidence. Please inquire about how to obtain copies of Mary’s books for your audience to enjoy.

BYOB to Work (Bring Your Whole Brain to Work)

Learn what the most successful CEOs know: Intuition makes the critical difference in your success!

When you make decisions based on just the facts, it’s like leaving half your brain in the car!

Here is what you will learn in this presentation.

- How making half brained decisions cost you time, energy, and money
- How to lead with expanded awareness
- How expanded awareness can lead to forward momentum for greater productivity, performance, and profitability

Activate Your Inner Visionary

When you set the intention for your life, it can’t help but lead to perspective on what role your career plays in your ultimate goal.

Vision setting is more than the Miss America speech of values and dreams. It is intentionally setting goals that determines how every decision you make gets you closer to your vision.

- What do you want to be known for?
- What kind of resources do you want at your disposal?
- Who do you see with you on this journey?

This big picture view gives perspective for every area of your life starting now. This is a great topic for each business person to consider.

Finding Your True Power

It’s closer than you think. It’s your body and it is speaking to your all day every day. Let Mary help you make the mind body connection to your intuition.

- Transform work and amplify results
- Recognize how much you really know
- See how easy it is to make great decisions